SECRET ORDERS DENOUNCED .- "Se cret societies are undermining religion and to them is due the decrease in church membership and decline in the church membership and decline in the interest in the teachings of Christ," said C. A. Blanchard, president of Wheaton College, to the students of the Moody Institute, at he Chicago Avenue Church Sunday night.

The speaker continued in a tirade against secret societies in general and the Masonia order in particular.

against secret societies in general and the Masonic order in particular. He made a statement that the home, church, and state are entitled to all the time, money, thought, and energy of every Christian man and woman.

"All men," he said, "have a religious nature and the secret societies are Satan's means of addressing himself to that pature."

The address has created a sensation in secret society circles. Wheaton Odlege is famous for its fight against the Greek letter fraternities.

Mayor Jones, of Toledo, when in Chicago, said the growth of secret so cieties was a grand indication of Christian and social progress, as each society aims at bringing about the brotherhood

A Pleasure and a Duty.

I consider it not only a pleasure but a duty I owe to my neighbors to tell about the wonderful cure effected in my case by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoes Remedy. I was taken very badly with the flux and procured a bottle of this remedy. A few doses of it effected a permanent cure. I take pleasure in recommend-ing it to others suffering from that dreadful disease. -J. W. Lynch, Dorr, W. Vs. This remedy is sold by all
